

Spending your stimulus funding on students with disabilities?

Stimulate minds with your stimulus dollars.

Your stimulus funding can go further than you think. Proven effective and efficient, Imagine Learning will check off every item on your list.

Stimulus Plan Wish list

- Help my special education students reach new levels of learning
- Implement technology that will fill ALL my students' needs
- Find a quick way to chart student progress, and use it to improve my teaching (and increase their learning!)

With Imagine Learning as your partner, you can bring your special education students the same great resources and results that districts around the country are already experiencing.

- Computer adaptive placement test and differentiated instruction
- Instruction using multiple modalities
- Peer modeling and instructional tutorials
- Real-time student reports to inform individual education plans (IEPs)
- Parental involvement
