

Spending your stimulus funding on at-risk students?

Stimulate minds with your stimulus dollars.

Your stimulus funding can go further than you think. Proven effective and efficient, Imagine Learning will check off every item on your list.

Stimulus Plan Wish list

- ✓ Help my at-risk students reach new levels of learning
- ✓ Implement high-quality software to help them achieve
- ✓ Find a quick way to chart student progress, and use it to improve my teaching (and increase their learning!)
- ✓ Start a targeted assistance program we can use before school, after school, during the summer—maybe even over an extended school year

With Imagine Learning as your partner, you can bring your at-risk students the same great resources and results that districts around the country are already experiencing.

- Differentiated instruction and opportunities for reteaching
- High-quality reading instruction
- Academic vocabulary for math, science, and other content areas
- Reading comprehension strategies that really work
- Parental involvement
