

Reading and Writing I		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
Reading Fiction
Preparing to Read a Fiction Text
		Activate prior knowledge.
		Determine the meaning of unknown story words.
Setting in a Fiction Text
		Identify the setting of a story.
		Make text-to-self connections to visualize a story's setting.
Characterization in a Fiction Text
		Distinguish direct characterization from indirect characterization.
		Make supported inferences about a character.
Conflict in a Fiction Text
		Identify conflict in a story.
		Use conflict to make predictions about a story.
Plot Elements in a Fiction Text
		Identify plot elements in a story.
		Use questioning to describe a story's plot.
Unit Test
Analyzing Fiction
Tracing Plot in a Fiction Text
		Trace the plot of a story.
		Summarize the plot of a story.
Figurative Language in a Fiction Text

Reading and Writing I		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
		Identify figurative language in a story.
		Connect with prior knowledge to interpret figurative language.
	Theme in a Fiction Text
		Read and reread a story to identify important story elements.
		Synthesize story elements to determine the theme of a story.
	Characters in Holes
		Understand how an author reveals details about a character
		Distinguish between stated and implied character traits
		Infer to identify implied traits
	Conflict and Resolution in "Amigo Brothers"
		Recognize elements of plot structure
		Examine conflict's role in a story
		Determine the theme of a story
	Unit Test
Reading Informational Texts
	Preparing to Read an Informational Text
		Use text features to preview an informational text.
		Group domain-specific words into families.
	Central Ideas in an Informational Text
		Identify central ideas and supporting details in an informational text.
		Make text-to-self and text-to-world connections using an informational text.
	Making Inferences about an Informational Text

Reading and Writing I		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
		Make inferences about an informational text.
		Support inferences about an informational text.
	Important Details in an Informational Text
		Paraphrase the most important details of an informational text.
		Summarize an informational text.
	Unit Test
Informational Text Structures
	Description in an Informational Text
		Recognize descriptive details in an informational text.
		Identify an author's purpose in an informational text.
	Cause-and-Effect Structure in an Informational Text
		Distinguish causes from effects.
		Recognize cause-and-effect structure in an informational text.
	Compare-and-Contrast Structure in an Informational Text
		Recognize compare-and-contrast text structure.
		Create mental models to understand compare-and-contrast text structure.
	Problem-Solution Structure in an Informational Text
		Recognize problem-solution text structure.
		Use text structure to predict what will come next in the text.
	Argument in an Informational Text
		Recognize the claim in an argumentative text.
		Identify reason and evidence in an argumentative text.

Reading and Writing I		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
	Procedural Steps in an Informational Text
		Preview a procedural text.
		Follow the steps of a procedural text.
	Unit Test
Vocabulary and Writing
	Using Context Clues to Find Word Meanings
		Identify context clues.
		Use context clues to determine the meanings of unknown words.
	Using Roots to Find Word Meanings
		Identify common roots in words.
		Use word roots to figure out the meanings of unknown words.
	Writing Strong Paragraphs
		Recognize the characteristics of a topic sentence.
		Identify how to organize ideas to create a strong paragraph.
	Ordering Events in a Personal Narrative
		Understand the structure of a personal narrative
		Explore ways to order events in a personal narrative
		Write a personal narrative that has a beginning, a middle, and an end
	Using Semantic Analysis to Find Word Meanings
		Group words into categories.
		Use semantic features to identify the meanings of unknown words.
	Using Reference Tools to Find Word Meanings

Reading and Writing I		Scope and Sequence
Unit	Lesson	Objectives
		Use reference tools to determine the meanings of unknown words.
		Identify the meanings of multiple-meaning words.
	Analyzing Procedural Text
		Explore the steps in a process
		Analyze the purpose of procedural writing
		Write a recipe based on a procedural framework
	Unit Test
Cumulative Exam
	Cumulative Exam Review
	Cumulative Exam	