

Language Arts 5 Curriculum Map

Semester B

Module	Unit	Lesson	Objectives
1	Reading Information	Main Ideas	1. Identify two or more main ideas in a passage of informational text. 2. Explain how the main ideas in a text are supported by details.
		Supporting Details	Explain how the main ideas in a text are supported by details.
		Using Direct Quotes	Use direct quotes to support your explanation of a text's main ideas.
		Punctuating Quotes	Punctuate direct quotes used to support an explanation.
	Finding Answers	Sources of Information	Identify sources that may provide the answer to a specific question.
		Using Information	Use information from print and digital sources to answer a question.
		Homophones	Define homophone and identify some commonly confused examples.
		Spelling Homophones	Identify and apply strategies for remembering how to spell these words.
	Analyzing Claims	Finding Claims	1. Define and identify examples of written claims. 2. Identify an author's claim.
		Finding Support for Claims	1. Explain how authors use reasons and evidence to support a claim. 2. Identify examples of reasons and evidence that support a claim.
		Analyzing a Claim	Analyze the claim in a persuasive text.
		Conjunctions	1. Define and identify examples of conjunctions. 2. Explain the role of conjunctions in a sentence.

Module	Unit	Lesson	Objectives
2	Reading Science	Connecting Concepts	Explain the relationship between two concepts in a scientific article.
		Scientific Words	Identify and define words commonly used in scientific articles.
		Dissecting Words	Use common Greek and Latin word parts to figure out what words mean.
		Using Conjunctions	Explain how conjunctions are used to show relationships between ideas.
	Analyzing Science	Organizing Science	Identify common ways of organizing scientific articles.
		Comparing Organization	Compare the organization of two different scientific articles.
		Integrating Science Sources	Integrate information from two scientific articles on the same topic.
		Researching Words	Use reference materials to find out the exact meaning and pronunciation of key words and phrases.
	Reading History	Connecting Events	Explain the relationship between two events in an historical ac
		Historical Words	Identify words that are commonly used in historical accounts.
		Context Clues in History	Use cause and effect relationships to determine the meanings of unfamiliar words used in historical accounts
		Prepositions	Define and explain the use of prepositions and prepositional phrases.

Module	Unit	Lesson	Objectives
3	Analyzing History	Comparing Historical Accounts	Compare and contrast two accounts of the same event.
		The Author's Perspective	Analyze the perspective of an author writing about historical eventx
		Correlative Conjunctions	Define and identify examples of correlative conjunctions.
		Using Correlative Conjunctions	Use correlative conjunctions to compare and contrast ideas.
	Researching	Research Questions	Generate a question to use as a research topic.
		Finding Sources	Find sources that may provide answers to a research question.
		Using Reference Materials	Use a dictionary to find out the exact meaning and pronunciation of key words and phrases.
	Summarizing Sources	Summarizing	Summarize articles used to answer a research question.
		Selecting Direct Quotes	1. Select direct quotes to support an explanation of an article's claims.2. Provide context for a direct quote by summarizing the source of the quote.
		Transitional Tags	Use transitional tags to integrate direct quotes into a summary.
		Punctuating Direct Quotes	1. Identify correctly punctuated direct quotes. 2. Integrate direct quotes into a research report and correctly punctuate them.

Module	Unit	Lesson	Objectives
4	Making Your Case	Finding an Angle	Explain their perspective on a topic they researched.
		Supporting Your Ideas	Develop a perspective on a topic with reasons and information.
		Research Words	Identify and define words commonly used in research reports.
		Spelling	Recall the correct spelling of words that are frequently used in research reports.
	Building Arguments	Finding Evidence	Identify evidence that supports a claim and the reasoning behind it.
		Organizing Research Reports	1. Define and identify common ways of organizing research reports. 2. Choose the best structure for supporting a particular claim or purpose for a research report.
		Outlining a Research Report	Use an outline to plan the organization of a research report.
	Writing Your Report	Drafting a Research Report	Draft a research report that develops a perspective on a topic.
		Writing Strategies	1. Draft a research report that develops a perspective on a topic. 2. Use writing strategies that help them develop ideas and expand on details.

Module	Unit	Lesson	Objectives
Module 5	Peer Review	Review and Respond	Peer review a research report written by another student.
		Combining Sentences	Identify sentences that should be combined with other sentences.
		Separating Sentences	Determine if a group of words is a complete sentence.
	Revisit and Revise	Using Feedback	Evaluate and prioritize feedback provided by peers and/or a teacher.
		Plan to Revise	Develop a plan for revising a research report.
		Revising a Report	In this lesson students will apply what they've learned about revising a research report.
		Revising for Style	Improve the style and clarity of a research report by expanding, combining, separating, or reducing sentences.
	Proof and Edit	Proofreading	1. Identify the areas to check when proofreading a research report. 2. Proofread a research report.
		Editing By Checklist	1. Describe the purpose of an editing checklist. 2. Identify items that typically appear on an editing checklist.
		The Final Touches	1. Correct common writing mistakes related to grammar, usage, and mechanics. 2. Edit a research report.
		Citing Your Sources	Cite sources of information used in a research report.

Module	Unit	Lesson	Objectives
6	Speak Up	Planning an Oral Report	1. Select main ideas and details for an oral report. 2. Organize ideas for an oral report.
		Choosing Details for a Speech	Choose and integrate facts and descriptive details to support the main ideas in an oral report.
		Visual Elements	Create or select visual elements to illustrate key points in an oral report.
		Speaking Techniques	Identify, describe, and apply techniques that make an oral report more clear and compelling for an audience.
	Make It Zing	Presenting Multimedia	Identify media components that will help present a set of main ideas with a particular point of view.
		Planning a Presentation	Create an outline, site map, or other plan representing ideas and media components for a multimedia presentation.
		Look and Listen	Summarize a presenter's main ideas or argument.
		Interjections	1. Define and identify examples of interjections. 2. Distinguish between mild and strong interjections. 3. Punctuate interjections correctly.
	Get Heard	Power Tools for Communication	1. Identify some of the ways in which technology helps people share ideas. 2. Identify some of the dangers or drawbacks of technology-enhanced communication.
		Publishing with Technology	Use technology to share your point of view with a larger audience.
		Responding to Ideas	Respond appropriately to the digital messages of others.
		The Perfect Tense	1. Define and identify examples of the perfect tense. 2. Form and use the perfect verb tenses (I had walked; I have walked; I will have walked).