Equitable Speech Services

Give students secure access to COPPA-compliant speech therapy from home or school

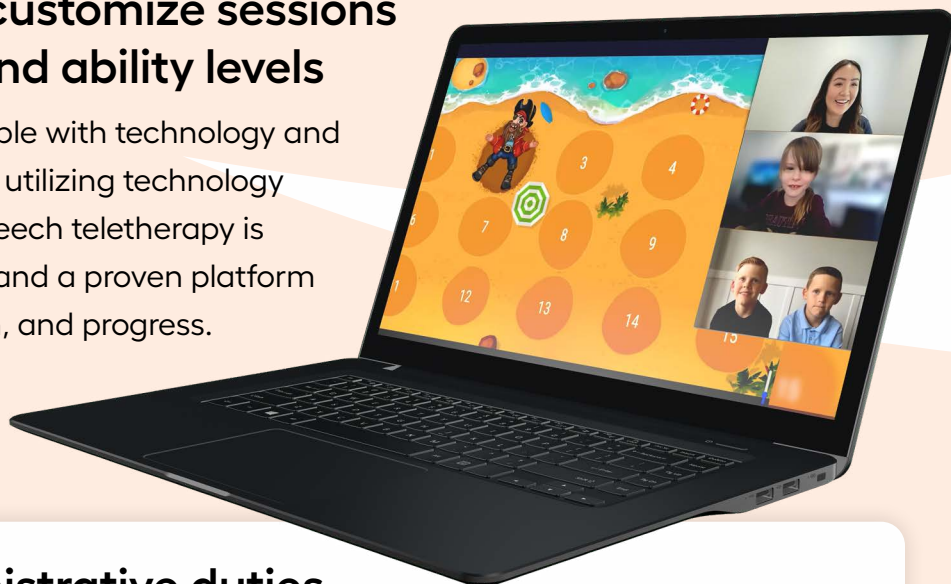

With growing staffing shortages, it is becoming more challenging for districts to give students the federally mandated speech therapy minutes they need. Imagine Learning's nationally certified, fully licensed speech-language pathologists (SLPs) will provide services online to support students' Individualized Education Plans (IEPs) and successfully:

- ✓ Address the shortage of certified and licensed speech-language pathologists
- ✓ Guarantee that dedicated IEP minutes for each speech student are met
- ✓ Identify and evaluate students who may need speech and/or language therapy
- ✓ Meet all local, state, and federal special education compliance mandates
- ✓ Offer educationally designed interventions that will address students' IEPs
- ✓ Provide transparency for stakeholders through a robust reporting system for speech and language therapy minutes provided (direct and indirect)

School-based SLPs customize sessions to students' grade and ability levels

Today's students are comfortable with technology and love game-based activities. By utilizing technology in a fun and engaging way, speech teletherapy is exceptionally student-friendly and a proven platform for interactive learning, growth, and progress.
